INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION DAY

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2018

Are you ready to celebrate International Credit Union Day with us? October 18, 2018, will mark the 70th anniversary of International Credit Union Day, making this year an extra special occasion as we get ready to celebrate with more than 235 million people across 109 countries and 6 continents. Ask your mom or dad to bring you by the Credit Union throughout the week of October 15-19 as we celebrate this special week and show members our appreciation with free snacks and free coin counting in our branches all week. We look forward to celebrating with you!

*Coins must be deposited into member's account.

OCTOBER 2018

CONGRATULATIONS TO CADENCE,

who was our Back to School Lino Ride winner. Stretch Lino & United Financial picked up Cadence, along with twelve friends when school was dismissed. The lino bus took them to Starsust where pizza & pop was waiting for them. They played for a while, then took a cruise around town, before being dropped back off at school.

Cadence submitted a video, stating that she was saving her money at the credit union, so she can go visit her aunt, uncle, and cousin overseas.

Children & teens are asked to submit a drawing or short 1-3 minute video about what they are saving their money for and why.

ACTS OF KINDNESS FOR THE Holiday Season

No matter how big or small you are, you're never too young to help spread holiday cheer to the people all around you! Here are simple ways you can change the world with your own acts of kindness.

Make a senior smile, visit a retirement home.

Many older adults get excited when people (especially kids!) visit, and they will feel extra special that you thought of them during the holiday season. Bring in some games to play with them, pictures to share, drawings to hand out, or songs to sing.

Collect donations for a food bank.

The holiday season is an especially hard time for food banks to keep food in stock. Take up donations of canned or boxed food items from your friends, neighbors and family members and have a parent help you find a local food bank to make the donations to.

Send holiday cards to military overseas.

You may be lucky enough to have your parents around for the holidays, but many kids are without their moms and dads because they are fighting to protect all of us. Sending some handmade cards is a simple and thoughtful way to say thank you.

Choose gifts from an angel tree.

Many schools or places of work or worship will host angel trees. You can choose a tag off the tree and then shop for a gift for a child that may not have as much as you do.

Help a neighbor.

Offer to do yard work or snow shoveling for free for a neighbor. If you're still a little young for that option, ask a parent to help you bake some goodies to share with your neighbor instead.

Spread smiles to the sick.

Many children's hospitals accept toys during the holiday season to pass out to children receiving care. You can drop off new, unused books, toys, and stuffed animals to help brighten a child's hospital stay.

Candy cane bomb a parking lot.

It is just as fun as it sounds! Have a parent walk you around a parking lot and place candy canes and Happy Holiday notes on car windshields for people to discover after they're done with their shopping.
